PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR DANCE INSTRUCTORS

Teacher's Workshop

July 27 - 31, 2009

Registration: $210, Utah Teachers: $110*

This workshop taught by Kay Andersen is designed for teachers who are working in the university, professional, and secondary school settings. Shared experiences in modern dance technique, improvisation and choreography will provide participants the opportunity for artistic growth and rejuvenation. The mixed group of educators will address trends in the field and issues of dance training and dance making in order to increase and elevate the dialogue about teaching in the field.

* $25 deposit due at registration.

Early Bird Registration before June 1, 2009 -
$190, Utah Teachers $90.

University and in-service credit available.

Kay Andersen received his BA from Southern Utah University and his MA from New York University in dance profession with an emphasis in performance and choreography. For 11 years he was a soloist, participated in the creation of important roles, and taught company and master classes with the Nikolais and Murray Louis Dance Company. He has performed in well-known venues throughout the United States, Europe, Asia and South America. He performed extensively with the American Folk Ballet and was a member of the company for 24 years. Mr. Andersen has been an Associate Professor of Dance at Southern Utah University for nine years.
